

TIMELY DISCOVERY PREVENTS BAD FIRE

Loss of $2,500 Caused by Flames
in Kramer Packing Plant in Heart
of Business District

DISCOVERED BY PATROLMEN

Two Thousand Pounds of Bacon
Burns and Smoke House Will
Have to Be Rebuilt

Fire that started in the smoke house of the H. A. Kramer packing company, located in the heart of the business district, caused a loss estimated by Mr. Kramer at $2,500, which is covered with insurance.

The flames were discovered at 12:30 this morning by Patrolmen Smith and Everman, who were passing down the alley, and saw smoke coming out from beneath the roof. They turned in the alarm from box 31, and the timely discovery of the blaze prevented a serious loss.

The smoke house is a brick constructed compartment located within the packing house, and has a concrete roof. There were 2,000 pounds of bacon being cured, and it is believed that one of them fell from the rack into the fire, and this caused the blaze to flame up and ignite the rest of the bacon.

The wooden doors on the smoke house were burned, and the flames shot up to the roof, but did not burn through, confining the blaze to the interior. The ton of bacon made a terrifically hot fire, according to the firemen, and also caused a dense smoke.

Although the large smoke house is constructed of brick and concrete it was ruined, by water being thrown onto it while hot, and the smoke house compartment will have to be rebuilt according to Mr. Kramer.

The pumpers laid three hose lines from plugs, and were prepared to fight the flames, although two lines were sufficient to smother the fire. The flames almost broke through the roof, as the rafters were badly charred in several places, due to the excessive heat of the brick compartment.

Mr. Kramer stated that there were 2,000 pounds of bacon destroyed valued at 35 cents a pound and he estimated the total loss including damage to the building, as being approximately $2,500.

The packing house has been visited by several fires in recent years, and the last time was on August 22, 1923, when defective wiring is believed to have set fire to the engine room. At this time a portion of the roof was destroyed and the loss then was $1,700.

GYM ASSOCIATION TO BE FORMED AT ONCE

With Goal of $25,000 Almost
Reached. Plans Are Being Made
to Obtain Additional Loan

INCORPORATION TO BE MADE

Organization of association for the erection of a high school gymnasium will proceed next week, it was assured today, with the goal of $25,000 as a non-interest bearing loan from Rushville citizens almost raised.

More than $5,000 has been pledged for season tickets, and it is expected that this sum will be almost doubled with another canvass among persons who were not seen in the first canvass, and with a season ticket sale campaign in the high school. No students of the school have yet been permitted to make pledges for tickets.

With $35,000 as a basis, the organizers of the movement expect to borrow a similar amount to be represented by first preferred stock of the association. Second preferred stock will represent the loans from local people.

After arrangements are made for the loan in Indianapolis next Monday, articles of incorporation will be drawn up and filed and the association will then come into existence and be authorized to engage an architect, accept plans and let the contract for immediate construction of the building.

SHERIFF SERVES INDICTMENT

Milroy Man Fined for Allowing Minors to Play Pool

The bench warrants on the seven grand jury indictments returned this week, have been given to Sheriff Hunt, who is preparing to serve them. One of them was served late Friday, it being against Harry Richey of Milroy, the charge being for permitting minors to play pool. He pleaded guilty and paid a fine of $5 and costs, amounting in all to $16.50.

It was intimated that most of the indictments returned were against the five prisoners now in jail awaiting trial, and they will be arraigned on the indictments probably Monday. It also was intimated that one of the indictments was against a person living in an adjoining county, and will be brought here to answer to the charge and give bond.

PHONE CO. SHOWS A NET EARNING

Annual Reports Reveal Cash Balance of $5,777.54. Building Surplus to More Than $35,000

ASSETS TOTAL $219,303.53

Three Directors Unanimously Elected and Dr. L. M. Green Named for R. F. Scudder's Term

Reports of the manager, George H. Davis, showing a net income for the fiscal year ending March 31 of $5,777.54, and of the secretary, M. V. Spivey, were heard at the annual meeting of stockholders of the Rushville Co-operative Telephone company Friday evening at the court house assembly room and four directors were elected.

The question of paying another dividend was brought up, but after some stockholders had expressed opposition, and the manager made a statement in which he said that large expenditures would be required in the next few years for plant replacements and due to increased patronage that is expected, the subject was not brought to a vote.

The company declared the first dividend ever paid was year before last. It amounted to 100 per cent and caused a division of opinion among stockholders, who disagreed as to the wisdom of such a policy.

Robert L. Tompkins, O. E. Humes and John H. Frazee were unanimously elected directors for terms of two years and Dr. Lowell M. Green was elected for one year to fill out the unexpired term of the late R. F. Scudder.

Several stockholders and the directors present were called on for short talks. Mr. Frazee, who as president of the board, presided at the meeting, said that the fame of the company had spread to Long Beach, Calif., where he spent the winter, for he met a man there who marveled at the fact that the company could accumulate such a surplus and still have the lowest rates of any company in existence.

The management of the company was praised for the thriving condition of the business which received from all sources during the fiscal year the sum of $59,638.99, counting a balance of $478.68 from the year before, and disbursed $53,480.50, leaving a balance for the year of $6,158.39.

The manager's report revealed that the company has the sum of $29,320.55 invested in securities in addition to the cash on hand, making the actual cash surplus over $35,000.

There was a gain of 75 telephones during the year, Mr. Davis' report revealed. The company had 2,536 telephones in service April 1 this year as compared with 2,461 the same date last year. To make this gain, the company installed 298 phones and took out 223, and also moved 136 phones during the year.

The manager's report disclosed an increase of $12,717.12 in assets during the year as follows:

Central office equipment, $107.02; station equipment (telephones), $654.11; exchange lines, $1,702.53; general equipment, $466.12; materials and supplies, $42,644; funds invested in securities, $4,091.35; cash on hands, $5,679.71.

FLOWERS THAT BLOOM IN THE SPRING TRAIL

Births and Deaths Balanced at 18 in Rural Districts, But Ratio
Changed in Rushville

30 DEATHS AND 27 BIRTHS

Circumstance is Unusual Because
Births Generally Have the Edge
Over Their Close Rival

The Grim Reaper turned the tables on the stork during the month of March, and set a pace early in the month which they maintained, and the summary shows 30 deaths and 27 births for the month.

This is an unusual circumstance, because births are generally ahead of deaths in Rush county for any month, but it will be recalled that many people died during March, and the early part of April also shows more deaths than births.

In Rushville city, there were 12 deaths during the month and 9 births. In the territory outside of the city limits, there were 18 deaths and births each. The Reaper showed little partiality and summoned persons of advanced age, and those young in life.

The contagious diseases for the month, shows five mumps, one scarlet fever, and one smallpox, all outside of the city, and in Rushville city, there were no cases of contagion reported. The names of the babies born during March, and their addresses, are as follows.

NEIGHBOR CITY IS BUILDING 50 HOMES

Boom at Shelbyville Reported With
Many Dwellings Under Construction This Summer

RENTAL PROPERTY A PREMIUM

Persons and Firms Make Plans to Build up in New Additions—32
in One Part Alone

Shelbyville, Ind., April 11—This city is now engaged in one of the greatest eras of home-building that has been experienced here for a number of years. Before the end of the present building season, more than one hundred new homes will have been constructed in various parts of Shelbyville.

There is at present a great demand for homes. Rental property, which has been at a premium in the city for several years, because of the big demand, and the few desirable places to be had, is yet in great demand. The home building boom which is now under way is believed to be a direct result of the scarcity of desirable rental sites.

In the new addition to the city, on the south side, and which may be roughly described at that section between Miller street and Jefferson avenue, and from Colecott street to Fourth street, there is a small army of men engaged in the building of new homes. Desirable lots in that part of the city have been brought up during the winter and spring by persons who desired the sites for their homes.

Within this bit of territory there are now thirty-two new residence properties in various stages of construction. And within the same bounds there are a number of residences which were completed during the present year, and which are

H. S. STUDENTS TO GET SUMMER JOBS

Free Employment Bureau Announced at High School, and Co-Operation is Asked Locally

APPEAL SENT TO EMPLOYERS

Many Students Anxious to Learn
Trades or be Employed After
School Hours and Vacation

A free employment bureau, to act as a clearing house between high school students and employers in Rushville, was announced today by E. B. Butler, high school principal, who has appealed to all firms in the city, asking information.

The same plan was used last year, and enabled the placement of many high school boys and girls in business houses, factories and other concerns during the summer months, and also takes care of positions for students after school hours and Saturdays.

Anyone in Rushville having an opening for a high school student in any line of work, should get in touch with Mr. Butler, and make an employment. Letters that are being sent out from the school by Mr. Butler, contains the following appeal:

Through my office, as Principal of the Rushville High School, we are endeavoring to find suitable and available positions for our young people, for mornings and evenings during the school day, for Saturdays and for the summer vacation period. Our object is to bring the right position and the right worker together through our recommendations.

No charges will be made for this service, as we believe it to be a part of the work of the public schools of this city. We have on file the school records and special qualifications of all the students of the Junior and Senior High School who will accept employment, and whom you may legally employ. In this way we can give you a select number of applicants for the vacancies you may have from time to time.

We ask your cooperation in this work and hope that we may be of service to you. Will you call on us when you are in need of workers? Our phone number is 1422. No piece of work is too small to list with us.

Yours very truly,
Eugene B. Butler,
Principal of Rushville
High School.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 11—Charges of driving an auto while intoxicated confronted Alfred Kissick, 42, today after a miraculous escape from death last night.

Kissick attempted to pass a street car on the wrong side and crashed into the car. A street car approaching from the opposite direction struck the wreckage and the auto was ground to pieces in the narrow space between the two street cars.

He escaped without a scratch. Police had to chop him out of the wreckage.

RAIN MAY SAVE THE WHEAT CROP

If Fair Weather Follows Only Small Portion Has Been Damaged by The Drouth

STATISTICIAN'S ESTIMATE

Rush One of Counties Where Greatest Damage Has Been Reported, M. M. Justin Says

(By United Press)
Indianapolis, Ind., April 11—The rain throughout Indiana during the past forty-eight hours may save the wheat crop which has been in grave danger from the dry weather, M. M. Austin, federal agriculture statistician declared today.

If fair weather follows the rain, only a small portion has been hopelessly damaged by the drouth, Justin said.

The condition of winter wheat for the state as of April 1 was seventy-two percent, as compared with eighty-one percent December 1, the report stated.

Last year the condition was seventy-four percent on April 1, a decline of fourteen percent from the previous December 1 figure.

The counties where the most damage was reported in are: Marion, Jay, Blackford, Delaware, Wayne, Rush, Fayette, Shelby, and Decatur. Delaware, Henry, and Wayne were the hardest hit of these.

Dry weather has been the chief cause of the damage, Justin said. The rainfall at Indianapolis between January 1 and April 1 was fifty percent of normal.

The severe cold March 2 was another contributing cause. The temperature on that day reached one degree above zero. The cold followed close upon a period of warm wet weather during which the wheat grew considerably.

In the northern part of the state the condition was unchanged from that of December 1. The condition declined but slightly in the west central, Justin said.

The wheat crop in the southwest corner of the state which a year ago showed a greater decline than any part of the state from the condition in December, showed an actual improvement this year, he declared.

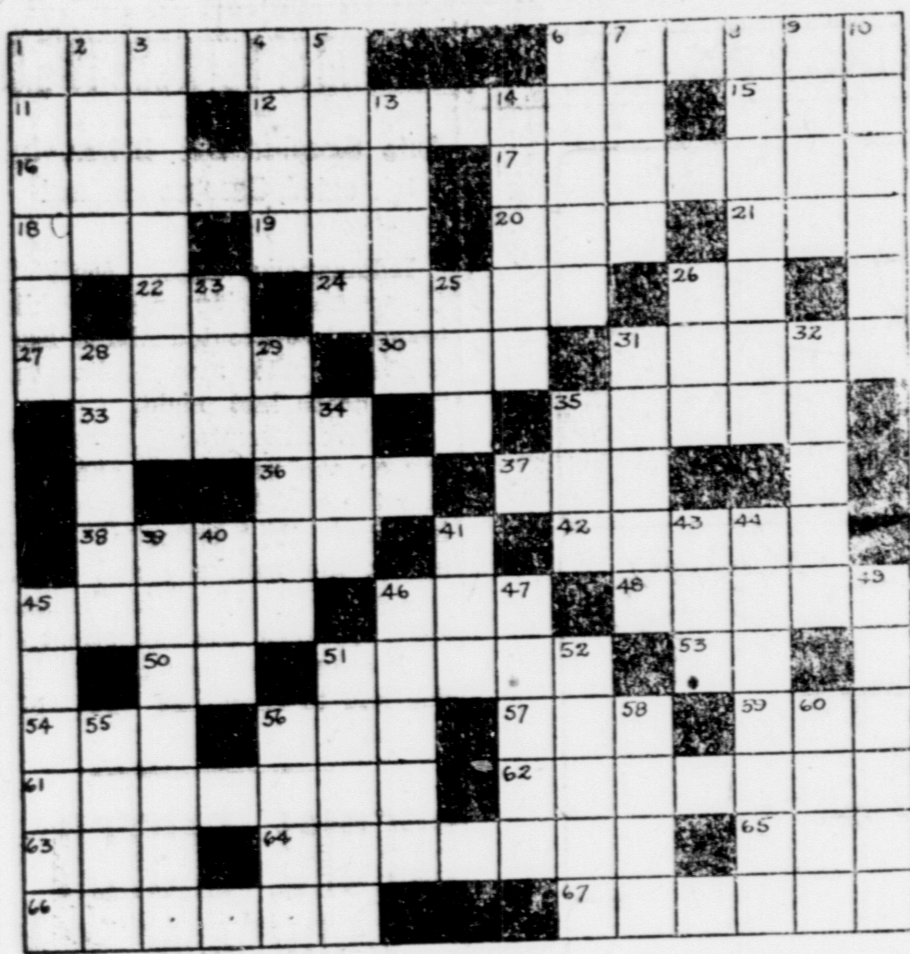

The condition of Rye in Indiana on April 1 was eighty-four percent as compared with eighty-seven percent December 1.

Farm workers are more easily obtainable in Indiana this year than last, according to the report. The ratio of supply to the demand this year was 99 percent, while it was 87 percent April 1 a year ago.

The condition of pasture April 1 was seventy-one percent last spring and a eighty-five percent last year.

More Houses Needed

The news from Shelbyville that more than one hundred new homes will be constructed there this summer calls attention to the fact that Rushville has a very serious housing problem that is growing worse daily, because no new homes are being built.

With large numbers of workmen to be employed in Rushville this summer, the shortage of suitable places for them to live will become more acute.

Two new factories will be in operation in Rushville within a year and with their opening will come another demand for homes.

Just how this situation is to be met deserves serious consideration on the part of Rushville citizens who are anxious to see Rushville continue in the way that it has been going for the past several months.

One new factory has been located in Rushville since the first of the year and people brought here by that organization have experienced the greatest difficulty in finding homes.

Two new homes are going up in the Stewart and Stewart addition to Rushville and this is the only prospect right now of any home building this year.

Surely, if Shelbyville is able to erect one hundred new houses during the summer, Rushville should also be able to do so.

Wherever Automobiles

A weaver automobile will scarcely be a drag on the market. It would be even more popular than a certain type of machine that the jokersmiths never tire of ridiculing.

Yet it is not an impossibility. Take the word of practical chemists, who said at a meeting if the American Chemical Society, that an automobile which will never wear out, may some day be constructed.

Sixteen groups of chemists are now engaged in studies in an effort to produce metal alloys which will be impervious to corrosion. Their aim is also to perfect metal alloys that will need neither painting nor plating. If such alloys can be developed, then automobiles will last indefinitely.

If this dream comes true, it will be a great boon to the people of the United States in overcoming a menacing economic waste. The countless thousands of cars that are "junked" each year are a heavy drain on the resources of a country, even though it be as fortunate as ours.

Selfishness

Working together for the betterment of the community is little short of a waste of time unless individual selfishness is eliminated.

Everyone admires the man who is continually seeking means to improve his business, but he will have few admirers if he seeks to profit at the expense of community enterprise.

While a certain amount of selfishness motivates every piece of public spirited work, it is on a higher plane and places the common welfare above individual betterment.

Every man engaged in movements to increase the population of his home town expects to profit individually, but if he is working for direct benefits and holds his interests above those of the whole community he is a drawback and should not slow up the procession.

Brevity is the soul of wit, a fact which some story tellers never heard about.

Wealth and youth frequently get tied up in matrimony, but it doesn't always take.

Every now and then labor is reported to be scarce, but there never seems to be any shortage of bosses.

A lazy man's only reason for getting up in the morning is that the day will give him another opportunity to get tired.

Hunt's Washington Letter

BY HARRY B. HUNT
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON—Back of President Coolidge's insistence on "economy" in both public and private expenditures is his appreciation of the extent to which the nation's income is mortgaged for taxes.

Despite a 25 per cent reduction in federal assessments last year, taxes—federal, state, county and municipal—took 15 per cent of the total national wealth.

The fact is that public debts, state and national, have reached such enormous proportions that interest and sinking fund charges alone constitute a burden of approximately $100 per family per year, on the average, for every household in America. When there is added to this the additional taxes necessary to meet the current costs of government, local, state and federal, the tax load becomes so staggering that it cannot longer be evaded as a real danger to our national well-being.

If the total public debt, for instance, was prorated equally among the heads of families in America, each family would be called upon to meet an interest bearing debt of $1500. This is about six times the per family share of 10 years ago. As interest over the period of payment will about equal the amount of principal to be paid, the average liability of each family because of present public debts is $3000.

And while this is being paid, taxes for current government costs continue to pile up.

At KEYS, president of the Curtiss Aeroplane Co., is not optimistic over the outlook for early development of commercial aviation in the United States.

Keys had been one of those who believed aerial express and passenger service commercially feasible. Some months ago, however, he had a careful survey made of just what might be expected in the way of patronage and revenue from an air passenger-express business and what the cost would be. The report caused him to give up any idea of investing in such an enterprise at present.

BEFORE commercial airplane lines can be established,

Keys believes, a period of public co-operation and assistance, similar to that originally given railroads, etc., will be necessary. "Landing fields, suitable for the landing of heavily loaded ships, must be provided at comparatively short intervals," he says. "That is something that must be done by municipalities, in the same way that roads and highways have been developed by municipalities for vehicle traffic."

"When there are certain things the national government should supply, just as the government supplies lighthouses and channels for ships, in the interest of commerce."

"At present, the cost of transportation by air is from 10 to 25 times the cost of present established means of carrying the same articles. The present service is sufficiently satisfactory to make it difficult to induce people to change. Such change, when it comes, will be by slow degrees—by evolution. In my judgment, air transportation at the present time is a government function or none at all."

The day when the circus travelled overland in horse drawn wagons and one was billed for Rushville, coming from Connersville? And how it had rained heavily and it was pouring when the circus arrived in Rushville? As the wagons arrived they turned south in Main street in the rain and kept right on to Greensburg? And the writer remembers with what a heavy heart he and the other small boys saw the circus pass through without stopping as it was useless to pitch their tents because of the rain. The writer watched the circus pass through from the law office of the late John W. Study in the Ringel-Carr Block where the American National Bank now stands.

Rushville's finest and probably most famous ball team of about the year 1884. The team had fine enclosed grounds with bleachers and an amphitheatre and was situated in a common north of Fifth street and just east of the Big Four R. R. I do not think the Big Four was built at that time. The team was made up of McVey, catcher of Connersville; Ramsey, of Shelbyville, pitcher; Holland, first base; Halpin second base; Shay, short stop; Hill third base; and Smith, Gentry Hacker and Ol Norris, fielders. The latter two were the only Rushville men on the team, all the other men except the battery being from the defunct Piqua, Ohio team. Rushville's greatest rival was Cambridge City and the games with the latter town were always close and interesting. Large crowds attended the games. Ramsey was one of the first, if not the first, curve pitcher, and struck out one man after another.

The following season Ramsey went to Louisville which at that time was in the big national league. There Ramsey was a sensation and was as successful as he was in Rushville. The most famous game he pitched at Rushville was against the Athletics (as the Pittsburgh National League team was then called.) Rushville being beaten 3 to 2 in a very tight game and the Pittsburgh team only won finally by throwing in a dead ball. Holland hit it an awful blow, but the ball didn't get out of the diamond and Holland was thrown out at first. The latter was a powerful batter. Charlie Johnson, brother of the late Fred Johnson, druggist, who now lives in Indianapolis, was Rushville's manager. Charlie caught the Athletics in the dead ball act and called them but the protest was without avail and the Pittsburgh team finally won. Ask Ol Norris about this. Ol used to get everything that went to his territory right field, and was a fine fielder and all round ball player. The writer was a small boy in those days, never missed a game, and usually managed to crash the gates.

The foregoing was submitted to the Daily Republican by a former Rushville man who now lives elsewhere. He prefers that his identity not be known. The same man wrote the reminiscences which appeared in this column last Saturday.

Wabash Will be Minus Several Stars
When Track Team Meets Earlham April 18

7 LETTER MEN AVAILABLE

(By United Press)

Crawfordsville, Ind., April 11—When the Wabash college track team meets the Earlham squad at Richmond April 18, it will be without several mainstays of the last season's squad, according to anticipations today.

Only seven letter men are available at the Little Giant camp. Because of this Coach Higgins is confronted with a big task before him if Wabash is to be represented by a strong track team.

The running events, however are well taken care of. Captain Gustafson, Sweeney, Johnson, Nichols, Dinwiddle, Swift, and Weber are showing winning form.

But in the field events Canine, a high jumper is the only letter man. Several men are trying out for the field events from the freshman squad of last year, but at present Parr is the only man who has shown any marked ability.

Sammy Johnson, the Wabash Olympic and long distance star, is in great shape and should continue to burn up the tracks this season.

Johnson is probably the greatest distance runner in the state, according to Wabash enthusiasts.

Chicago, April 11—Five hundred and eighteen bowlers, coming from coast to coast, started rolling the balls down the alleys yesterday in the Petersen sweepstakes, the world's richest 10 pin event. The event will last three days, and the winner will get $2,500 and the diamond championship medal.

Michigan City, Ind., April 11—Floyd Fitzsimmons was hopeful today to landing his off-again-on-again Wayne Munn-Strangler Lewis bout for Decoration day. Gabe Kaufmann, Munn's manager, was impressed with the Sky Blue bowl here, he admitted before leaving for Philadelphia where he meets Stan Zbyszko next week. While in the east Kauffman will investigate an offer of $100,000 for Munn to tour Europe.

Wins Indoor Tennis Crown

Introducing Mr. Jean Borota, new national indoor tennis champion. Borota, a member of the French Davis cup team, and known as the "Bouncing Basque," is the first foreigner ever to have won the honors. The Frenchman added to his achievement by helping to cop the doubles crown as well. Vincent Richards, 1924 king, didn't defend his laurels in the tournament. Borota, by virtue of his stellar play, is expected to aid the French aggregation greatly in international matches this summer.

Picks Giants in National

(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, April 11—Liberties are extended at the particular season of the year when every one is more or less amiable, to make some guesses about baseball without being set as a public nuisance.

The National League pennant race annually affords the opportunity for one to distinguish himself for bravery by stepping out and telling an anxious public just where the eight teams are going to finish in October and what team is going to represent the National League in the world's series.

The pennant winner ought to be easy to name this year—the New York Giants.

The runners-up and the runners-behind cannot be placed as easily and with as much excusable certainty.

From the present indications it looks like they might line up behind the four time champions in this order:

Brooklyn
Pittsburgh
Cincinnati
Chicago

St. Louis
Philadelphia or Boston

The Giants look to be the winners because the team, if not really strengthened by the improvement that can be expected reasonably in several young pitchers, are at least as strong as they were last season and they were stronger last season than their game and a half margin over the Brooklyn Robins would indicate.

The Giants have two hazards this season—overconfidence and loss of morale—and it is likely that neither one will be fatal or injurious. John McGraw will not let his players get the swell head and he will not let them whisper and brood if they are told a lot about last fall's scandal as they travel around the circuit.

It is the safest bet in the world that the Giants will not keep too much in mind that they have won four straight pennants and that it ought to be easy for them this year. It is a safe bet that they will play for every game because they are the best money players in the major leagues and because John McGraw has too much control over the men.

Brooklyn is picked for second place because it is a good ball club, well organized and well directed. It is not a spectacular ball club, and it is not a colorful club, but it is an effective team, working in harmony with the most lovable manager in baseball—Uncle Wilbert Robinson. The team has an offensive punch in Wheat, Fournier and Brown and several other less consistent but almost as dangerous batters in a pinch. The team has a good infield defense, a good outfield and a wof of a pitching staff. One of the greatest virtues of the Brooklyn club is its consistency. It gets a pace and holds it. It never runs wild and it doesn't slump.

Pittsburgh is placed third simply because it ought to be "up around there some place." The Pirates with Grimm gone and a rookie on first base, with Maranville gone and an experiment on second base, do not seem to be as powerful as they were last year. There may be better spirit on the club, but first base and second base are no places for experiments.

The Cincinnati Reds are placed fourth because they do not belong any lower. Maybe they'll be higher. The Reds were handicapped by many conditions last year that will be improved this year. With a better first baseman than Bressler, the Reds would warrant a higher rating.

When Rabbit Maranville went out of the game for two months with a broken ankle, the pennant chances of the Cubs were just about wrecked. The Rabbit was to have been—and might have been—the spark-plug of the infield and the correction of a weakness that has bothered the club for two or three years. The team that beats the Giants cannot get started in June. It will have to be away on full speed from the crack of the gun and maintain a consistent and steady pace. The Cubs aren't equipped to do that.

The St. Louis Cards are not placed higher, because it is not reasonable to assume that such a great improvement can be worked in the pitching staff and because it has been shown conclusively that Rogers Hornsby cannot bring a pennant to St. Louis lone-handed.

Strange to say, the tail-end is harder to pick than the leaders. The Philadelphia Phils and the Boston Braves have so many qualifications as a last place club that it is most difficult to decide which team will play the worst ball. They both have hustling managers, but their material is equally of inferior grade. On a long shot, the guess might be offered that the Phils have a little more dash and spirit and they might play like a seventh place club more than the Braves.

Accidents must be figured over a long stretch, but the bad brakes factor is no great menace to the Giants. They have the greatest reserve power in the major leagues with the men on the bench for nearly every position and regulars on the field who can play acceptably in two or three positions. Nothing but a train wreck that would incapacitate the whole team could reduce the strength of the Giants.

Yes, there is that "terrible pitching staff" of the Giants to consider, but that staff has weathered four hard battles and there is enough power, drive and spirit on the offense and the defense to carry an inferior bunch of pitchers.

The Giants look like the best bet.

New York—Paavo Nurmi, world's champion runner, turned down an invitation to run in a special 1,000 meter race against Allen Hellfrich in the military athletic league games here Saturday night. Nurmi, according to Hugo Quist, his manager, will spend a vacation, brought about by the cancellation of several dates on his schedule, in the middle-west and make his next appearance in Kansas City.

"The Arab," Coming

"The Arab," Rex Ingram's first Metro production since "Sacramento," is coming to the Princess Theatre on Monday for a run of two days. "The Arab" is an exciting story of the love of a Shiek's son for the daughter of an American missionary; the attempted massacre of the Christians by the Governor of the Turkish province; and their rescue by the Arab's own warriors.

Ramon Novarro and Alice Terry have the chief roles, and it is said that both appear to better advantage than ever before. The background and costumes are authentic, since Mr. Ingram took his company to Northern Africa to obtain the real atmosphere.

"The Arab" is based on Edgar Selwyn's famous stage play. It was photographed by John F. Seitz.

"The City That Never Sleeps"

James Cruze, the man who made "The Covered Wagon," has an eye for the fitness of things.

His new Paramount picture, "The City That Never Sleeps," begins in a Bowery saloon, proceeds through fifteen years of narrative, and ends in a police station.

When Walter Woods and Anthony Goldewy wrote the screen play from Leroy Scott's story, "Mother O'Day," they didn't think it would be very nice to leave Louise Dresser, Kathryn Williams, Richardo Cortez and Virginia Lee Corbin, the featured players, standing in a police station at the final fade-out, so they added a sequence to take place in a railroad station.

But Cruze didn't like it. "Anything that starts in a saloon really should end in a police station," he argued with a twinkle in his eye, and that's the way he ended it. "The City That Never Sleeps" comes to the Castle theatre next Monday and Tuesday.

Letters Like This Prove the Reliability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Turtle Lake, Wisconsin. — "I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for weakness, backache and nervousness. I had these troubles for years and had taken other medicines for them, but I have found no medicine so good as the Vegetable Compound and I recommend it to my friends who have troubles similar to mine. I saw it advertised and thought I would try it and it has helped me in all my troubles. I have had six children and I have taken the Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before each one was born, for weakness, vomiting, poor appetite and backache, and again after childbirth because of dizzy headaches. It is a good medicine for it always helps me. I have also taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills for the last eight years for constipation." — Mrs. MABEL LA POINT, R. F. D. No. 1, Turtle Lake, Wisconsin.

In a recent canvass, 98 out of every 100 women say they were benefited by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

The Pastor's Aid Society of the Main Street Christian church will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the church. Mrs. Hallie Baldwin's section, will have charge of the social hour.

Mrs. Lowell Green and Mrs. Charles Wilson will be hostesses to the Monday Circle and guests at the Elks Club rooms Monday afternoon. Mrs. Demareus Brown of Indianapolis will address the ladies on one of her popular travelogue talks.

The Golden Link Bible Class of the Ben Davis Creek Christian church was delightfully entertained Friday evening by the Misses Helen and Mary Hinchman at their home near Glenwood. After a business session the members spent the remainder of the evening in an informal social period. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Miss Emma Peacock entertained with a birthday party Friday evening at her home in Carthage, honoring Miss Myra McDaniel's birthday anniversary. The party was in the form of a tea towel shower. The centerpiece of the dining table was a large birthday cake adorned with the lighted candles and from which streamers led to the Easter place cards, marking the covers for the guests. When the top of the cake was lifted the gifts were displayed within. The predominating color scheme carried out was yellow and white, in keeping with the Easter season. The invited guests were:

The Misses Mildred Herkless, LaVaughn Haywood, Helen Siler, Nellie Davies, Dorothy Sipe, Louise Parrish, Dorothy Leisner, Frances Clemenz of Rushville, Mrs. Robert Stanley, Mrs. L. C. O'Dell, Mrs. Paul Bennett and Miss Al McDaniel. Delicious refreshments were served during the evening.

Mrs. Charles D. Moore and Mrs. G. B. McNabb were charming hostesses Friday evening at the home of the former in Carthage, when they entertained a number of their friends with a bridge party.

Eight tables of bridge were in session during the evening and at the close of the card games, refreshments were served. The small card tables were covered with yellow crepe paper adorned with diagonal strips of green paper. Each table was lighted with green candles and yellow shades. The nut cups were in the form of rabbits for the ladies and chickens for the men and were filled with small easter eggs. The refreshments consisted of cakes with green icing adorned with yellow daffodils, and ice cream molded in the shape of hens on the nest. The little favors given each guest were small chickens perched on a roost. The home was decorated throughout with bouquets of daffodils.

NEIGHBOR CITY IS BUILDING 50 HOMES

now being occupied by the owners. The number of these which have been finished and are now being occupied, will bring the number of new homes in this bit of territory to near fifty.

In other sections of Shelbyville there are many homes being put up. George Torrance is constructing five new residences on Van avenue and Noble streets. He plans to sell these properties to persons who desire them for homes.

On the west edge of the city a tract of land has been bought by Hale and Hale, of this city. They have plans for the construction of about twenty four residence properties, which are to be put up during the season. Work has been started on some of these, all being designed for persons who desire homes.

At the east edge of Shelbyville another tract of land has been bought to be laid out in lots for homes. Elmer Reddington, a local real estate dealer plans to construct a number of residence properties on this site.

The majority of the homes which are now being constructed are four and five-room cottages of the bungalow type.

EASTER COSTUMES WILL BRING OUT RIOT OF COLOR THIS YEAR

By HEDDA HOYT
(Fashion Editor of United Press)
New York, April 11—Easter day will see a riot of color! Pastel shades vying with vivid ones are turning Fifth Avenue into a mass of color such as has never before been equaled. Owing to the early spring, women have been wearing their Easter costumes for several weeks in advance of Easter Sunday and the most predominate note this season is color.

Men are quite as gay as women in their color schemes. Hundreds of them, both old and young, are dressed in light powder blue suits and overcoats; a blue that has before been attempted by men. Light grays are equally popular with the men-folk and suits, overcoats and hats match in shade giving the "ensemble" effect to the masculine world. Never have men been such glorious creatures.

But—back to the women! Their styles have already been photographed and reprinted in every newspaper in the United States until we are all familiar with the silhouette—short skirts, flaring hems, farless necklines, fur hemborders, long snug sleeves and small-head-fitting hats.

The thing that can't be described is color! Their range runs from the palest of pastels to the most vivid shades imaginable and there is also a wide popularity for dull shades, such as taupe, tan, navy and black. The most popular pastel shades are those of rose, light green and Madonna blue. Red is the predominating shade among the vivid ones and is used in entire ensembles, coats and as tunics which are worn under more sombre ensemble jackets. Navy combined with red is a favorite of the flapper. The matrons, judging by the numbers parading on the Avenue prefer the black silk or cloth trimmed in fur at the hemline.

Costumes are divided into three groups; ensembles, long coats and mannish tailcoats. Ensemble suits are the most colorful of the lot. Long coats choose either pastel shades or black while mannish tailored suits are best in mannish weaves.

On Broadway, where styles are often fashioned by the actresses themselves, one finds pink and rose the leading shades. Even where the costume is dark, the hat is often of a soft rose or pinkish crushed felt or of a straw and silk combination. Long coats of dull rose cloth have front flares bordered in gray fox. Felt hats match the coats. Light tan is also popular on Broadway and such costumes usually are matched by hat, hosiery, shoes and gloves.

And while Broadway goes in for pastels, Fifth Avenue prefers more brilliant shades of red and green. Ensemble suits of lip-stick red trimmed in black are many. Black satin pumps, gunmetal stockings and black gloves are worn to give a subdued note to the red outfit. Among the novelty coats worn by the debutantes on the Avenue are double-breasted models which are made to suggest the figures until they reach the hips, where they flare in wide circular movement.

These double-breasted models recall the coats of the ancient hack-drivers. They are untrimmed by fur and have severely tailored lines. One of Madonna blue has a collar of sapphire blue velvet, as its only trimming. Others of golden brown are worn without the addition of fur neckpieces and have draped hats of self material.

Literally hundreds of women are wearing long black cloth or silk coats with straight backs and flaring fronts trimmed in fur. Monkey fur adorns many of the ribbed silk models and the heavy satins. Red fox trims most of the cloth models, although gray fox is also popular on black.

The mannish suits with double-breasted coats and extremely short skirts are garbs of the younger set, who want to look "nifty but natural." Mixed weaves, pinstripes and plaids are the popular materials. Coats are cut exactly like a man's suit coat, with patch pockets and flat lapels. Some of these suits have little vests cut like a man's vest. One of the most attractive models had a coat of brown suede cloth, a tan camel's hair vest and a brown and tan striped skirt. A small brown felt hat accompanied this.

Hosiery and shoes seem to melt right into the frock this Easter. There are many tan and gray suede shoes matched by hosiery and gloves. Black and brown shoes are as popular as ever, although there is usually a trimming of gray or tan leather piping.

Scarfs are numerous and colorful, owing to the disappearance of fur about the neck. Corsages, if not real, are not worn as much as they were earlier this Winter.

Gay hats are the order of the day, with red, pink and caramel shades leading.

One always looks for novelties at Eastertime, but this season every second costume is a novelty, or would be, were the season not so full of novelties. About the most startling gowning woman was one who wore a yellow felt jacket over a yellowish cloth frock. A small felt hat matched her frock and her hosiery was a decided yellow, worn with shoes of brown satin. She reminded one of a yellow duckling.

Another rather startling outfit recently worn was a black and white checked coat with cross-word puzzle design. Still another novelty was a coat of four horizontal layers of different colors. This coat began at the neckline in seal brown which faded into henna, then orange, then yellow. The wearer had brown about her throat and yellow at the hemline with stripes of henna and orange about the center of her garment.

But aside from a few oddities Easter costumes are pretty much alike—pastel cloth coats matched by hats, vivid ensembles fur-trimmed at the front flare, graceful black coats trimmed in yellowish or gray furs and boyish suits. Fur is concentrated at the hemlines. Sleeves are long and slender. And colors rage rampant.

The most startling thing about this season's styles is the vividness of men's raiment!

HIGH SCHOOL REFLECTOR

CIRCLEVILLE

The spring festival program was given by the pupils of the school under the direction of Miss Alice Pierson Thursday afternoon.

We were pleased to have with us many of our parents and other visitors, including Miss Hunt and Miss Pearson, teachers in the Webb school.

From the many expressions we heard from the visitors, the program was very pleasing to them.

Our school has the distinction of having a genuine American patron in the person of Sky Eagle, whose ancestry dates even farther back than the Jamestown or Plymouth colonies.

At the conclusion of the program by the school, Sky Eagle and three of his small children delightfully entertained us with a program of their own which was greatly appreciated by all.

Our music work this term has been in charge of Miss Bundy who has worked very earnestly for the results which we have obtained.

Next week we have our final examinations and school closes the following Monday.

CENTER SCHOOL

Most of the classes have completed the required courses in all studies for this semester. Final examinations will be held at the end of the next week and school will close on Friday, April 17.

Achievements tests were given to the pupils of the Center school on Tuesday and to the pupils of the Mays school on Wednesday.

Last Friday night the pupils of the Center school gave a musical program at the church. This program consisted of group of songs taken from the regular music work, together with some special musical numbers, drills and exercises. A very large number of people enjoyed the program.

Freda McMannus, a former Center pupil, visited school Thursday.

Frances and William Benner very pleasantly entertained the high school Thursday morning with a number of musical selections.

Mr. DeMoss entertained the girls of the basketball team at a supper in Knightstown Thursday evening. They had a pleasant time.

GINGS SCHOOL

A large crowd attended our Spring Festival which was given at the school last Wednesday night under the supervision of Mrs. P. L. Stewart and her assistants, Miss Clara Herbst, primary; Mrs. Hubert Blair, third and fourth; and Miss Edith Kiser, fifth and sixth. The stage was decorated in form of a flower garden and the background being lattice work with pink and green flowers, the foreground in form of a fence with a basket of pink roses on the gate posts and pink and green crepe paper ribbons forming the curtain and side decorations. All the children who were in the drills and rhythm work were in costumes, which were designed by the teachers. The following program was rendered by the school:

PRIMARY
Group songs.
Folk Game "Round and Round the Village."
Dramatization of a Song—Three boys.

Rhythm Drill
Folk Dance.
Baby Band.

THIRD AND FOURTH
I. Group singing "All Spring Grasses" "Lavender's Blue," "The Wise Bird," "The Mischievous Cloud" and "The Robin."

TIMELY DISCOVERY PREVENTS BAD FIRE

Loss of $2,500 Caused by Flames
in Kramer Packing Plant in Heart
of Business District

DISCOVERED BY PATROLMEN

Two Thousand Pounds of Bacon
Burns and Smoke House Will
Have to Be Rebuilt

Fire that started in the smoke house of the H. A. Kramer packing company, located in the heart of the business district, caused a loss estimated by Mr. Kramer at $2,500, which is covered by insurance.

The flames were discovered at 12:30 this morning by Patrolmen Smith and Everman, who were passing down the alley, and saw smoke coming out from beneath the roof. They turned in the alarm from box 31, and the timely discovery of the blaze prevented a serious loss.

The smoke house is a brick constructed compartment located within the packing house, and has a concrete roof. There were 2,000 pounds of bacon being cured, and it is believed that one of them fell from the rack into the fire, and this caused the blaze to flame up and ignite the rest of the bacon.

The wooden doors on the smoke house were burned, and the flames shot up to the roof, but did not burn through, confining the blaze to the interior. The ton of bacon made a terrifically hot fire, according to the firemen, and also caused a dense smoke.

Although the large smoke house is constructed of brick and concrete it was ruined, by water being thrown onto it while hot, and the smoke house compartment will have to be rebuilt according to Mr. Kramer.

The pumpers laid three hose lines from plugs, and were prepared to fight the flames, although two lines were sufficient to smother the fire. The flames almost broke through the roof, as the rafters were badly charred in several places, due to the excessive heat of the brick compartment.

Mr. Kramer stated that there were 2,000 pounds of bacon destroyed valued at 35 cents a pound and he estimated the total loss including damage to the building, as being approximately $2,500.

The packing house has been visited by several fires in recent years, and the last time was on August 22, 1923, when defective wiring is believed to have set fire to the engine room. At this time a portion of the roof was destroyed and the loss then was $1,700.

GYM ASSOCIATION TO BE FORMED AT ONCE

With Goal of $25,000 Almost
Reached. Plans Are Being Made
to Obtain Additional Loan

INCORPORATION TO BE MADE

Organization of association for the erection of a high school gymnasium will proceed next week, it was assured today, with the goal of $25,000 as a non-interest bearing loan from Rushville citizens almost raised.

More than $5,000 has been pledged for season tickets, and it is expected that this sum will be almost doubled with another canvass among persons who were not seen in the first canvass, and with a season ticket sale campaign in the high school. No students of the school have yet been permitted to make pledges for tickets.

With $35,000 as a basis, the organizers of the movement expect to borrow a similar amount to be represented by first preferred stock of the association. Second preferred stock will represent the loans from local people.

After arrangements are made for the loan in Indianapolis next Monday, articles of incorporation will be drawn up and filed and the association will then come into existence and be authorized to engage an architect, accept plans and let the contract for immediate construction of the building.

SHERIFF SERVES INDICTMENT

Milroy Man Fined for Allowing Minors to Play Pool

The bench warrants on the seven grand jury indictments returned this week, have been given to Sheriff Hunt, who is preparing to serve them. One of them was served late Friday, it being against Harry Richey of Milroy, the charge being for permitting minors to play pool. He pleaded guilty and paid a fine of $5 and costs, amounting in all to $16.50.

It was intimated that most of the indictments returned were against the five prisoners now in jail awaiting trial, and they will be arraigned on the indictments probably Monday. It also was intimated that one of the indictments was against a person living in an adjoining county, and will be brought here to answer to the charge and give bond.

Three Directors Unanimously Elected and Dr. L. M. Green Named for R. F. Scudder's Term

Reports of the manager, George H. Davis, showing a net income for the fiscal year ending March 31 of $5,777.54, and of the secretary, M. V. Spivey, were heard at the annual meeting of stockholders of the Rushville Co-operative Telephone company Friday evening at the court house assembly room and four directors were elected.

The question of paying another dividend was brought up, but after some stockholders had expressed opposition, and the manager made a statement in which he said that large expenditures would be required in the next few years for plant replacements and due to increased patronage that is expected, the subject was not brought to a vote.

The company declared the first dividend ever paid was year before last. It amounted to 100 per cent and caused a division of opinion among stockholders, who disagreed as to the wisdom of such a policy.

Robert L. Tompkins, O. E. Humes and John H. Frazee were unanimously elected directors for terms of two years and Dr. Lowell M. Green was elected for one year to fill out the unexpired term of the late R. F. Scudder.

Several stockholders and the directors present were called on for short talks. Mr. Frazee, who as president of the board, presided at the meeting, said that the fame of the company had spread to Long Beach, Calif., where he spent the winter, for he met a man there who marveled at the fact that the company could accumulate such a surplus and still have the lowest rates of any company in existence.

The management of the company was praised for the thriving condition of the business which received from all sources during the fiscal year the sum of $59,638.99, counting a balance of $478.68 from the year before, and disbursed $53,480.50, leaving a balance for the year of $6,158.39.

The manager's report revealed that the company has the sum of $29,320.55 invested in securities in addition to the cash on hand, making the actual cash surplus over $35,000.

There was a gain of 75 telephones during the year, Mr. Davis' report revealed. The company had 2,536 telephones in service April 1 this year as compared with 2,461 the same date last year. To make this gain, the company installed 298 phones and took out 223, and also moved 136 phones during the year.

The manager's report disclosed an increase of $12,717.12 in assets during the year as follows:

Central office equipment, $107.02; station equipment (telephones), $654.11; exchange lines, $1,709.53; general equipment, $466.12; materials and supplies, $42.64; funds invested in securities, $4,091.35; cash on hand, $5,679.71.

30 DEATHS AND 27 BIRTHS

Circumstance is Unusual Because
Births Generally Have the Edge
Over Their Close Rival

The Grim Reaper turned the tables on the stork during the month of March, and set a pace early in the month which they maintained, and the summary shows 30 deaths and 27 births for the month.

This is an unusual circumstance, because births are generally ahead of deaths in Rush county for any month, but it will be recalled that many people died during March, and the early part of April also shows more deaths than births.

In Rushville city, there were 12 deaths during the month and 9 births. In the territory outside of the city limits, there were 18 deaths and births each. The Reaper showed little partiality and summoned persons of advanced age, and those young in life.

The contagious diseases for the month, shows five mumps, one scarlet fever, and one smallpox, all outside of the city, and in Rushville city, there were no cases of contagion reported. The names of the babies born during March, and their addresses, are as follows.

NEIGHBOR CITY IS BUILDING 50 HOMES

Boom at Shelbyville Reported With
Many Dwellings Under Construction This Summer

RENTAL PROPERTY A PREMIUM

Persons and Firms Make Plans to Build up in New Additions—32
in One Part Alone

Shelbyville, Ind., April 11—This city is now engaged in one of the greatest eras of home-building that has been experienced here for a number of years. Before the end of the present building season, more than one hundred new homes will have been constructed in various parts of Shelbyville.

There is at present a great demand for homes. Rental property, which has been at a premium in the city for several years, because of the big demand, and the few desirable places to be had, is yet in great demand. The home building boom which is now under way is believed to be a direct result of the scarcity of desirable rental sites.

In the new addition to the city, on the south side, and which may be roughly described at that section between Miller street and Jefferson avenue, and from Colescott street to Fourth street, there is a small army of men engaged in the building of new homes. Desirable lots in that part of the city have been brought up during the winter and spring by persons who desired the sites for their homes.

Within this bit of territory there are now thirty-two new residence properties in various stages of construction. And within the same bounds there are a number of residences which were completed during the present year, and which are

Free Employment Bureau Announced at High School, and Co-Operation is Asked Locally

APPEAL SENT TO EMPLOYERS

Many Students Anxious to Learn
Trades or Be Employed After
School Hours and Vacation

A free employment bureau, to act as a clearing house between high school students and employers in Rushville, was announced today by E. B. Butler, high school principal, who has appealed to all firms in the city, asking information.

The same plan was used last year, and enabled the placement of many high school boys and girls in business houses, factories and other concerns during the summer months, and also takes care of positions for students after school hours and Saturdays.

Anyone in Rushville having an opening for a high school student in any line of work, should get in touch with Mr. Butler, and make arrangements. Letters that are being employment letters that are being sent out from the school by Mr. Butler, contains the following appeal:

Through my office, as Principal of the Rushville High School, we are endeavoring to find suitable and available positions for our young people, for mornings and evenings during the school day, for Saturdays and for the summer vacation period. Our object is to bring the right position and the right worker together through our recommendations.

No charges will be made for this service, as we believe it to be a part of the work of the public schools of this city. We have on file the school records and special qualifications of all the students of the Junior and Senior High School who will accept employment, and whom you may legally employ. In this way we can give you a select number of applicants for the vacancies you may have from time to time.

We ask your cooperation in this work and hope that we may be of service to you. Will you call on us when you are in need of workers? Our phone number is 1422. No piece of work is too small to list with us.

Yours very truly,
Eugene R. Butler,
Principal of Rushville
High School.

RAIN MAY SAVE THE WHEAT CROP

If Fair Weather Follows Only Small Portion Has Been Damaged by The Drouth

STATISTICIAN'S ESTIMATE

Such One of Counties Where Great-est Damage Has Been Reported, H. M. Justin Says

Indianapolis, Ind., April 11—The rain throughout Indiana during the past forty-eight hours may save the wheat crop which has been in grave danger from the dry weather, H. M. Justin, federal agriculture statistician declared today.

If fair weather follows the rain, only a small portion has been hopelessly damaged by the drouth, Justin said.

The condition of winter wheat for the state as of April 1 was seventy-two percent, as compared with eighty-one percent December 1, the report stated.

Last year the condition was seventy-four percent on April 1, a decline of fourteen percent from the previous December 1 figure.

The counties where the most damage was reported in are: Marion, Jay, Blackford, Delaware, Wayne, Rush, Fayette, Shelby, and Decatur. Delaware, Henry, and Wayne were the hardest hit of these.

Dry weather has been the chief cause of the damage, Justin said. The rainfall at Indianapolis between January 1 and April 1 was fifty per cent of normal.

The severe cold March 2 was another contributing cause. The temperature on that day reached one degree above zero. The cold followed close upon a period of warm wet weather during which the wheat grew considerably.

In the northern part of the state the condition was unchanged from that of December 1. The condition declined but slightly in the west central, Justin said.

The wheat crop in the southwest corner of the state which a year ago showed a greater decline than any part of the state from the condition in December, showed an actual improvement this year, he declared.

The condition of Rye in Indiana on April 1 was eighty-four percent as compared with eighty-seven per cent December 1.

Farm workers are more easily obtainable in Indiana this year than last, according to the report. The ratio of supply to the demand this year was 99 percent, while it was 87 percent April 1 a year ago.

The condition of pasture April 1 was seventy-one percent last spring and a eighty-five percent last year.

STEPHENSON IN ABATEMENT FIGHT

Hearing on Plea to Prevent Trial on Grand Jury Indictments Opens in Indianapolis

WOMAN AT POINT OF DEATH

Miss Madge Oberholtzer, Said to Have Been Attacked, Unconscious Nearly Eleven Days

(By United Press)
Indianapolis, Ind., April 11—D. C. Stephenson, ex-grand dragon of the Indiana Klan made another effort today to free himself from trial on indictments charging conspiracy to kidnap, assault and battery with intent to commit a criminal attack and kill, malicious mayhem and conspiracy to commit a felony in an alleged attack on Miss Madge Oberholtzer, of Indianapolis.
Hearing on a plea of abatement on indictments of Stephenson and Earl Gentry and Earl Klenck charged jointly on the conspiracy to kidnap 'charge' opened in criminal court here today.
As a result of the alleged attack and subsequent taking of poison, Miss Oberholtzer is at the point of death at her home. She has been unconscious for nearly eleven days.
In the pleas for abatement validity of the true bills is attacked. They were filed in criminal court Monday and charge incompetency in the taking of the evidence by the grand jury.
The attorneys for the state have expressed their consternation as to how the defense obtained its information that the grand jury investigation was made in an incompetent manner. Every one present at the investigation was sworn to secrecy and if the proceedings became known to outsiders a "leak" has occurred somewhere, state's attorneys said.
It was expected that the sufficiency on which the evidence was obtained by the grand jury will also be attacked by the attorneys for the defense. It was expected that stress will be laid on the fact that the defense believes that evidence was obtained on "hearsay, gossip and rumors."

The defense is expected to charge that the indictments were either based on prejudice against the defendants or upon statements by Miss Oberholtzer when she was not in a fit mental or physical condition to make them.

T. B. ERADICATION TO BE THEME OF MEETING

County Livestock Gathering Monday Evening to Take Question of Tests For Tuberculosis

FEDERAL VETERINARY COMING

A county livestock meeting in the interest of tuberculosis eradication in cattle will be held in the court house Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock and Dr. Gibson, a federal veterinarian, has agreed to come for the session, it was announced today by the county agent, Herschel VanMatre.

In the past many Rush county farmers have had their cattle tested for tuberculosis under the federal accredited herd plan, but due to the growth of the work, which was recognized as only educational in nature, the federal department is not now able to take care of the work.

During the last several months many counties of Indiana have decided to make a county wide test and there is said to be sentiment in favor of such a thing here. The U. S. department is interested in establishing tuberculosis free counties, and with one exception, all federal men are now working in such counties.

The county agent had a number of T. B. contracts signed by local farmers during the past summer and fall, but early in the winter he received word, as did the county agents in Hancock, Decatur and Shelby, that it was useless to hold the contracts because the volume of the work was so great that the government agents could not make initial tests.

It is believed that there are only a few scattered herds in Rush county which have the infection. Those who realize that T. B. is communicated by milk from cows to the human family, as well as poultry and hogs, are interested in avoiding all chances of infection.

Communion and preaching services will be held at 10:30 and the Rev. E. K. VanWinkle will preach again at 7:30. The invitation for life decisions and confessions of Christ, and the placing of church membership, will be given throughout the day.

Friday night was Bible school night when classes attended in a body. Features were the song of the junior department and a solo, "The Old Rugged Cross," by Mrs. C. E. Waldon.

The evangelist's sermon dealt with the question asked by Pilate, "What will you do with Jesus who is called Christ?" of the Jews and multitudes who were crying out for the crucifixion of the Saviour.

"Six or seven times during the trial of Jesus," Mr. VanWinkle continued, "Did old Rome, the highest world tribunal, pronounce through Pilate, its representative that Jesus was innocent. For again and again Pilate said: 'I find no fault in this man.'"

"Pilate," said the evangelist, "desired to set him free, and had he not been steeped in political cowardice, he would have given the sentence to set him free. But instead he played into the hands of the Jews by offering according to custom to release a prisoner unto them. The choice was to be between Barabbas, the robber, and Jesus. They cried out, 'release unto us Barabbas.' Then Pilate said, 'what then will ye do with Jesus, who is called the Christ?' They cried out crucify Him, Crucify Him After many vain efforts to cause the Jews to relent, Pilate sat on his judgment seat and washed his hands of it all, saying 'His blood be upon you.' They answered 'His blood be upon us and our children.' With what awfulness this has come true, is familiar to every student of history.

The Rev. Mr. VanWinkle said, "It is easy for us to realize how they misunderstood the Christ. They had been misled by their religious leaders and the evidences of the Christ were not all in. Jesus had not yet been raised from the dead. There were some mitigating circumstances, which the Saviour recognized, when on the cross. He prayed 'Father forgive them, they know not what they do.' But matters have changed. Jesus was raised from the dead and the truth 'that Jesus was the Christ, the son of the Living God,' was demonstrated.

"The question before us tonight," said Rev. VanWinkle is "what will we do with Jesus the Christ, the Son of God?" Will we deny Him like Peter? Will we betray Him like Judas for love of money? Will we let false leaders blind us and lead us to mistake in the faith? Will we play the coward like Pilate; and play into the hands of the enemies of christianity? What will we do with the Christ? We are facing the day celebrating the resurrection. We are thinking of decision day, when you will be called on to decide for God and to confess Christ. What are you going to do?

Then Rev. Mr. VanWinkle asked "What does Jesus want us to do?" "In Brief Jesus wants us to be not ashamed of Him, the minister said. "He seeks the open confession, a stand for Him. Secondly, he asks for a surrender to Him."

SEVERAL MAINSTAYS TO BE MISSED THIS YEAR
Wabash Will be Minus Several Stars When Track Team Meets Earlham April 18
7 LETTER MEN AVAILABLE
(By United Press)
Crawfordsville, Ind., April 11—When the Wabash college track team meets the Earlham squad at Richmond April 18, it will be without several mainstays of the last season's squad, according to anticipations today.
Only seven letter men are available at the Little Giant camp. Because of this Coach Higgins is confronted with a big task before him if Wabash is to be represented by a strong track team.
The running events, however are well taken care of. Captain Gustafson, Sweeney, Johnson, Nichols, Dinwiddle, Swift, and Weber are showing winning form.
But in the field events Canine, a high jumper is the only letter man. Several men are trying out for the field events from the freshman squad of last year, but at present Parr is the only man who has shown any marked ability.
Sammy Johnson, the Wabash Olympic and long distance star, is in great shape and should continue to burn up the tracks this season.
Johnson is probably the greatest distance runner in the state, according to Wabash enthusiasts.
Chicago, April 11—Five hundred and eighteen bowlers, coming from coast to coast, started rolling the balls down the alleys yesterday in the Petersen sweepstakes, the world's richest 10 pin event. The event will last three days, and the winner will get $2,500 and the diamond championship medal.
Michigan City, Ind., April 11—Floyd Fitzsimmons was hopeful today to landing his off-again-on-again Wayne Munn-Strangler Lewis bout for Decoration day. Gabe Kaufmann, Munn's manager, was impressed with the Sky Blue bowl here, he admitted before leaving for Philadelphia where he meets Stan Zbyszko next week. While in the east Kaufmann will investigate an offer of $100,000 for Munn to tour Europe.

Wins Indoor Tennis Crown

Introducing Mr. Jean Borota, new indoor tennis champion. Borota, a member of the French Davis cup team, and known as the "Bouncing Basque," is the first foreigner ever to have won the honors. The Frenchman added to his achievement by helping to cop the doubles crown as well. Vincent Richards, 1924 king, didn't defend his laurels in the tournament. Borota, by virtue of his stellar play, is expected to aid the French aggregation greatly in international matches this summer.

MANNING WITH ARRELL

Picks Giants in National
(United Press Sports Editor)
New York, April 11—Liberties are extended at the particular season of the year when every one is more or less amiable, to make some guesses about baseball without being set as a public nuisance.
The National League pennant race annually affords the opportunity for one to distinguish himself for bravery by stepping out and telling an anxious public just where the eight teams are going to finish in October and what team is going to represent the National League in the world's series.
The pennant winner ought to be easy to name this year—the New York Giants.
The runners-up and the runners-behind cannot be placed as easily and with as much excusable certainty.
From the present indications it looks like they might line up behind the four time champions in this order:
Brooklyn
Pittsburgh
Cincinnati
Chicago
St. Louis
Philadelphia or Boston
The Giants look to be the winners because the team, if not really strengthened by the improvement that can be expected reasonably in several young pitchers, are at least as strong as they were last season and they were stronger last season than their game and a half margin over the Brooklyn Robins would indicate.
The Giants have two hazards this season—overconfidence and loss of morale—and it is likely that neither one will be fatal or injurious. John McGraw will not let his players get the swell head and he will not let them whisper and brood if they are told a lot about last fall's scandal as they travel around the circuit.
It is the safest bet in the world that the Giants will not keep too much in mind that they have won four straight pennants and that it ought to be easy for them this year. It is a safe bet that they will play for every game because they are the best money players in the major leagues and because John McGraw has too much control over the men.
Brooklyn is picked for second place because it is a good ball club, well organized and well directed. It is not a spectacular ball club, and it is not a colorful club, but it is an effective team, working in harmony with the most lovable manager in baseball—Uncle Wilbert Robinson. The team has an offensive punch in Wheat, Fournier and Brown and several other less consistent but almost as dangerous batters in pinch. The team has a good infield defense, a good outfield and a wow of a pitching staff. One of the greatest virtues of the Brooklyn club is its consistency. It gets a pace and holds it. It never runs wild and it doesn't slump.
Pittsburgh is placed third simply because it ought to be "up around there some place." The Pirates with Grimm gone and a rookie on first base, with Maranville gone and an experiment on second base, do not seem to be as powerful as they were last year. There may be better spirit on the club, but first base and second base are no places for experiments.
The Cincinnati Reds are placed fourth because they do not belong any lower. Maybe they'll be higher. The Reds were handicapped by many conditions last year that will be improved this year. With a better first baseman than Bressler, the Reds would warrant a higher rating.
When Rabbit Maranville went out of the game for two months with a broken ankle, the pennant chances of the Cubs were just about wrecked. The Rabbit was to have been—and might have been—the spark-plug of the infield and the correction of a weakness that has bothered the club for two or three years. The team that beats the Giants cannot get started in June. It will have to be away on full speed from the crack of the gun and maintain a consistent and steady pace. The Cubs aren't equipped to do that.
The St. Louis Cards are not placed higher, because it is not reasonable to assume that such a great improvement can be worked in the pitching staff and because it has been shown conclusively that Rogers Hornsby cannot bring a pennant to St. Louis lone-handed.
Strange to say, the tail-ender is harder to pick than the leaders. The Philadelphia Phils and the Boston Braves have so many qualifications as a last place club that it is most difficult to decide which team will play the worst ball. They both have lustling managers, but their material is equally of inferior grade. On a long shot, the guess might be offered that the Phils have a little more dash and spirit and they might play like a seventh place club more than the Braves.
Accidents must be figured over a long stretch, but the bad brakes factor is no great menace to the Giants. They have the greatest reserve power in the major leagues with the men on the bench for nearly every position and regulars on the field who can play acceptably in two or three positions. Nothing but a train wreck that would incapacitate the whole team could reduce the strength of the Giants.
Yes, there is that "terrible pitching staff" of the Giants to consider, but that staff has weathered four hard battles and there is enough power, drive and spirit on the offense and the defense to carry an inferior bunch of pitchers.
The Giants look like the best bet.
New York—Paavo Nurmi, world's champion runner, turned down an invitation to run in a special 1,000 meter race against Allen Helfrich in the military athletic league games here Saturday night. Nurmi, according to Hing Quist, his manager, will spend a vacation, brought about by the cancellation of several dates on his schedule, in the middle-west and make his next appearance in Kansas City.

"The Arab," Coming
"The Arab," Rex Ingram's first Metro production since "Sacrificing," is coming to the Princess Theatre on Monday for a run of two days. "The Arab" is an exciting story of the love of a Shiek's son for the daughter of an American missionary; the attempted massacre of the Christians by the Governor of the Turkish province; and their rescue by the Arab's own warriors.
Ramon Novarro and Alice Terry have the chief roles, and it is said that both appear to better advantage than ever before. The background and costumes are authentic, since Mr. Ingram took his company to Northern Africa to obtain the real atmosphere.
"The Arab" is based on Edgar Selwyn's famous stage play. It was photographed by John F. Seitz.

"The City That Never Sleeps"
James Cruze, the man who made "The Covered Wagon," has an eye for the fitness of things.
His new Paramount picture, "The City That Never Sleeps," begins in a Bowery saloon, proceeds through fifteen years of narrative, and ends in a police station.
When Walter Woods and Anthony Coldewey wrote the screen play from Leroy Scott's story, "Mother O'Day," they didn't think it would be very nice to leave Louise Dresser, Kathryn Williams, Richardo Cortez and Virginia Lee Corbin, the featured players, standing in a police station at the final fade-out, so they added a sequence to take place in a railroad station.
But Cruze didn't like it.
"Anything that starts in a saloon really should end in a police station," he argued with a twinkle in his eye, and that's the way he ended it.
"The City That Never Sleeps" comes to the Castle theatre next Monday and Tuesday.

Nashville, Tenn., April 11—Ty Cobb will not be in the Detroit lineup in the opening game of the season at Detroit Tuesday. This was definitely established today when his physician ordered him to stay in bed at least until Monday to recover from an attack of the influenza.

Louisville, Ky.—Leo O. Cotner, a derby favorite, worked the fastest trial mile at Churchill Downs. The colt made the distance in 1:41 4-5 and finished under restraint.
